Blomishes in the Champions' Play, However -Quakers Also Blank the Bostons and Take Third Place-Pittsburg Beats Chicago and St. Louis Outplays Cincinnati.

The champion Brooklyne, after being severely estan at the Polo Grounds en Friday, took something of a brace yesterday and white-washed the New York tail enders, score 1 to 0. Hanlon's men have a lead of 99 points over the Pittsburgs, who not only defeated the Chicagos but also moved back into second place. The Philadelphias blanked the Bostons, score also i to 0, and passed the Chicagos. St. Louis out-Brooklyn, 1; New York, 0.

BROOKLYN, 1; NEW YORK, 0. Though the weather was perfect for ball playing not more than 3 500 persons went to Washington Pank yesterday afternoon to see the tail-enders face the League Champions. But these loyal followers of the so-cailed national game were well repaid for their time and money. Bill Kennedy's magnificent pitching was chiefly responsible for Brooklyn's victory and New York's whitewash, but at that he was ably assisted by splendid fielding plays on the part of Daly, Cross and Dahlen when the least little slip-up would have turned the tide. The playing of the New Yorks demonstrated Not an error was made by the New Yorks, while Hickman, Doyle and Selbach completed sensational plays. Seibach picked a long foul from McGuire's bat off the left-field bleachers with one hand and received round after round of applause. Mercer pitched with cool-headed with one hand and received round after round of applause. Mercer pitched with cool-headed judgment, especially with men on bases, but there were several occasions when the Brocklyns batted without judgment. In the eighth inning, for instance, after Kelley had opened with a clean two-bagger, Dahlen attempted to bunt instead of hitting the ballout.

Had the ball been driven on the ground toward first or second Kelley could easily have made third, but Dahlen popped a baby fly straight in to Mercer's hands. Cross was thrown out by Hickman and Kelley ran to third. Had Dahlen batted properly Kelley could have scored on Cross's out, for Hickman would have been playing in close and might have slipped up on the ball, which was a difficult twister. Then, as a climax, with two out, Daly attempted to bunt and Mercer had an easy chance to retire the side, which was gracefully accepted.

There was another instance of poor judgment in the fourth. McGuire, in dodging away from a wild pitch, stuck his bat up and made a two-bagger to right. Kennedy did not try to punch the ball toward first base, but went out on a high fly to Doyle, thereby losing an opportunity to put McGuire on third, from which bag he might have scored on Keeler's out.

Again in the seventh, with two men on bases

Again in the seventh, with two men on bases Again in the seventh, with two men on bases and two out. Sheckard was in such a hurry to hit the ball that he put up a foul for Bowerman. The Champions secred the only run of the game in the first inning. With one out Keeler bunted and was safe. Sheckard forced Willie and stole second. Capt. Kelley came to the rescue with a hot single to centre and Sheckard ran home in a canter. The score:

ANOTHER YANKEE VICTORY AMBRICAN AMATEURS PROVE TO

MUCH FOR BRITISH SKIPPERS. The Youngest of TO-Footers Scores Again, and W. E. Vanderbilt, Jr., Brings Vir-ginia In Second—Altair and Esperanza Other Winners in N. Y. Y. C. Special Races. NEWPORT, July 14 .- Another race for the Yankee, and it was won again by skilful hand-ling and good judgment. Herman B. Duryea was at the wheel and Harry Payne Whitney assisted. Mrs. Duryes, Mrs. Whitney and Capt. Woodbury Kane were also on board and at the end of the race they were as much delighted as those who were on board the club boat. As the Yankee crossed the line Harry Whitney, who was sitting next to Herman Duryea in the cookpit, was so pleased that he gave the successful helmsman a slap on the back that nearly knocked him over. Then all on the victorious yacht waved their hats in acknowledgement of the salutes given by those on the vessels at the finish. It was a great day for the amateurs, and the British skippers were beaten again. mistake on the beat home. The Belmont boat was the third around the outer mark and when they had all been on the wind for a few minutes the Mineola crossed the bow of the Yankee. Instead of tacking then and having the Yankee under the Mineola's lee, Capt. Wringe made a long board out to sea and when the four boats came together later on the Mineola was the last of the bunch. It was a splendid contest from start to finish. All four boats are getting in fine trim and after sailing fifteen miles to windward and return to-day, there was only 6 minutes and 42 seconds between the first and the last. This is remarkable, because the wind was not a true one. It backed and hauled all day and was baffling and fluky. With a true wind and after another race or two, these 70-footers will undoubtedly be close together all over the course.

There was a splendid breeze from the northwest when the yachtemen left the harbor this morning. There was every indication that it would hold, but yaohtemen are rather afraid of winds from that quarter at this time of the year, as they are very often changeable Chairman S. Nicholson Kane, Butler Duncan, Jr., and Philip G. Schuyler, the Regatta Committee, were on board the big ocean-going tug Edward Luckenbach and they reached Brentons Reef lightship about 10:30 o'clock. The racing yachts were then sailing out by Fort Adams under mainsails and jibs. There were holes in the water and as soon as they got outside they jumped and danced about in great style. The committee boat was anchored southwest of the lightship and the committee decided to send the yachts fifteen miles to leeward and return. The wind was from northwest, one-half north, and the course was signalled southeast, half south. Supt. Niels Olsen, in charge of the mark boat, started off to log the course. The yachts by that time had reached the line and they sailed about lazily, each skipper waiting to see what the others would do. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., on the Virginia, was the first to make up his mind and he luffed the yacht into the wind, while the crew sent a No. 2 club topsail aloft. This was no easy task, with the yacht dancing up and down on the waves, but it was soon lashed. The Rainbow's club topsail was the next one sent up and then those on the Mineola and Yankee

At 11 o'clock the preparatory gun was fired and ten minutes were allowed to the Yankee and ten minutes were answed to the Yankee to get ready. There was not much mangeuvring as it was down the wind for fifteen miles. All were in between the lightship and the Narragansett shore, and the crews were getting the spinnakers on deck. The Rainbow beat the Yankee 51 seconds;
Mineola 2 minutes and 40 seconds, and the Wirginia 5 minutes and 55 seconds.
The Virginia carried her balloon jib-topsail to the mark, and she took it in as she tacked to port. She then stood in toward the shore, Mr. Vanderbilt pinching her as much as he could to work to windward. The Mineola went to starboard at 1:42:30, and the Yankee and Rainbow followed. Capt. Wringe only held on this tack until 1:45:15, when he put the Mineola about again and passed astern of the Yankee. The latter went about at 1:47 to port.
The Rainbow and Mineola were drawing together, and at 1:47:20 the Kainbow, on the starboard tack, forced the Mineola about, and Capt.
Parker at once flung the Rainbow about on top of the Mineola. The Yankee and Mineola were then drawing together, and much to the surprise of every one the Mineola forced the Yankee under her stern.
Then Capt. Wringe, instead of taking advantage of the position he had gained, stood away to the southward. The Yankee drew tup on the Rainbow, and with a good pull drew through her lee and kept on to Sakounet Point.
The Mineola held on the off-shore tack until 1:59:15 and then went to port. All four were heading in to the land, with the Mineola to windward and Virginia to leeward. At 3:17 the Yankee tacked to starboard. She was followed in order by the Virginia and Rainbow. The Mineola was drawing toward the others and as they came together it was seen that she had lost considerably by keeping off shore. After passing astern of all the others she tacked for the lightship at 3:25:40. The Yankee had taken quite a big lead and the Virginia had worked so far ahead that she could cross the Rainbow and take second place. The Mineola soon overhauled the Rainbow and fell in third position.
The Yankee had salled a good course and crossed the finishing line first at 5:32:39. The Virginia had to makea short hitch to fetch and she crossed at 3:66:37. The Mineola sh

The Virginia, with W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., at the wheel, was the second boat in, the Rainbow was third and the Mineola last. Many thought that the Mineola was beaten through a fatal mistake on the beat home. The Belmont boat was very close to the Shark. The times at the finish were:

On this beat the Altair outsailed the Syce 2 minutes 4 seconds, Shark 2 minutes 50 seconds and the Sistae 21 minutes 40 seconds.

The race was for boats in the 20 to 25 foot class. The Jupiter of the Jamaica Bay Yacht Club won, but was ruled out on the ground that she carried professional sallors, and the first prize went to S. W. Sheer's Lillo S. of the Jamaica Bay Yacht Club, with C. J. Neilson's Arrow a capital second. The corrected time of the winner was 1 hour 54 minutes 45 seconds.

Yachts Race for Roosevelt Cups.

Some good yacht racing was witnessed off the Seawanhaka Corinthian Club yesterday after noon. The event of the day was the se-foot noon. The event of the day was the 16-foot class over a twelve-mile course, for the Alfred Roosevelt memorial cups. There was a good northwest breeze blowing. The yachts got off in good order and for the first leg the beats kept well together. It was an interesting race to the end. The yachts reached the stake boat in the following order: Seamp, Raider, Wyntfe, Bee, Minstrel, Bobs. Snapper was disqualified for crossing Raider's bow on the last leg.

The Wraith Wins New York Cance Club Race. There was a spirited race of the new one-design knockabouts of the New York Cance Club off the knockabouts of the New York Canoe Club off the clubhouse at Bensonhurst yesterday. The wind was very heavy from the northwest, but the little boats stood up splendidly. The course of nine miles was from an imaginary line drawn off the New York Canoe Club flat, thence to a mark buoy off Sea Gate, Norton's Point, thence to a mark buoy off the Marine and Field Club and back to the finishing line. There was a lively mix-up on the second leg of the course between the Minx. C. V. Schuyler; Pebble, William R. Spear, and Kelple, W. K. Brown, in which the boats got so tangled that all three withdrew.

The Wraith, owned by F. C. Tompkins, passed the Broncho on the flual leg and won by 36 seconds, in 1 hour 45 minutes 9 seconds.

OUR ATHLETES IN THE VAN AT THE PARIS GAMES. In Two Finished Events They Win Every Place Except the Third in the Final Heat of the 100-Metre Run-Kraenzietn Takes the Hurdle Bace-The Mishap to Duffy. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Paris, July 14.—American athletes almost swept the board at the international sports, which began on the Bois de Boulogne at 8:30 clock this morning. The constant victories of the representatives of the Stars and Stripes caused much enthusiasm. Americans were present in large numbers, cheering on their countrymen in every event. The weather was glorious, but fast times were impossible as the contests took place on a grass track. The wholesale character of the Americans uccess is apparent from the fact that one or more of them qualified for the finals in each of the events in which the trials were held, while in the only two races in which the final heats were run Americans not only won but secured five out of the six places. The loss of the third place in the 100-metre dash was a surprise Duffy of Georgetown University, who defeated all the men that toed the mark for the final heat, was looked upon as a sure winner, but his falling down allowed Stanley Rowley of New South Wales to finish third. Rowley was the only man not belonging to a United States team who qualified for the final.

In the heats for the 100-metre hurdles the winners were: A. C. Kraenzlein of the University of Pennsylvania, Pritchard of Bengal; Frederick G. Moloney of Chicago University; John McClain of the University of Michigan. and M, Decuyer. In the final heat the Americans finished one, two, three. Kraenziein won, with McClain second and Moloney third. In throwing the discus the preliminary trials were won by Bauer, Richard Sheldon of the New York A. C.; Creetier and Paraskevopoulos In the 100-metre run on the flat, the heats were won by Arthur F. Duffy of Georgetown University, William Arthur Moloney of Chicago University, Walter B. Tewkesbury of the University of Pennsylvania, F. W. Jarvis of Princeton University, S. Rowley of New South Wales, Loebler, Doerry, Pritchard of Bengal; E. J. Minahan of Georgetown University, Charles Lindley Burroughs of Chicago University and Dixon Boardman of the New York A. C. In the semi-finals the winners were Duffy, Tewkesbury, Jarvis and Rowley. The final heat was won by Jarvis of Princeton, with Tewkesbury of the University of Pennsylvania second and Rowley of New South Wales third. Duffy, the Georgetown University sprinter, fell. After the first two events the weather became excessively hot.

Chicago in 1808 he was not considered good enough class to represent the Chicago A. C. in the 100 yards at the dual meet with the New York A. C. Rush and Maybury ran for Chicago A. C. in the 100 yards at the dual meet with the New York A. C. Rush and Maybury ran for Chicago and finished first and second. Jarvis, however, received his opportunity a few days later, in the A. A. U. championship, and he won the event, beating the mere fancied pair one yard and a half. Jarvis has been singularly unfortunate in the intercollegiate 100-yards championship. He was beaten by less than six inches in 1899 by Tewksbury, who finished second to him in Paris yesterday, and last May Kraenzlein beat him nine inches.

The 110-metres hurdle race is only one foot over the regulation 120 yards. Victory in this event was universally conceded to Kraenzlein on the showing made in the English championships a week ago, but it was scarcely expected that the two Westerners, J. McClain and F. G. Molonsy, would finish second and third in view of the good work over the sticks of Norman Pritchard, the Bengal athlete.

Four hundred metres is 437½ yards. In the race over hurdles at that distance, in which Tewksbury and Orton qualified for the finals, the hurdles used were about three feet high, instead of the 2 feet 6 inch obstacles usual in middle-distance hurdle races in this country. The qualification of two Americans under these conditions is decidedly creditable. The qualification of two Americans under these conditions is decidedly creditable.

The 800-metres run is only a little short of half a mile, the exact distance being 875 yards.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 14.—The election of officers for the ensuing year in the American Whist League resulted as follows:

President, Dr. Joseph S. Neff, Philadelphia; Vice-President, P. J. Tormey, San Francisco; Treasurer, John T. Mitchell, Chicago; Recording Secretary, H. T. Fry. Chicago; Corresponding Secretary, E. B. Cooper, Nashville, Tenn.; directors, Clarence Brown, Toledo; W. E. Hudson, Buffalo; B. F. Kribben, St. Louis; S. St.-J. McCuthen, Plainfield, N. J.

Although no definite action has yet been taken in the matter, the general sentiment seems to be in favor of having the next annual congress in Milwaukee, where the first one was held ten

The final match for the A. W. L. challenge trophy is now in progress between the Detroit Whist Club team. E. Buffinton. F. G. Austin, J. W. Steiner, T. S. Eaton, and the American Whist Club team from Boston, H. H. Ward, L. M. Bouve, W. S. Fetollosa and C. L. Brecker, in the finals for the Hamilton trophy, three teams still have a chance, the Minneapolis, the Hamiltons from Chicago and the Chicago Whist Club. But the last are thought most likely to win with their team Rollo, Metgale, Cheeseman and Martin. The kinickerbocker Whist Club of New York lost its chance by losing to the Racine Club by eight tricks. Cincinnati, Columbus, Newton and St. Paul were all knocked out in the sixth round.

The survivors in the contest for the Minneapolis cup for pairs, who pulled out ahead among the twenty-eight clubs entered, are as follows, with their scores: W. A. Potter and F. S. Wilcox, Providence, 123; H. C. Wailace and F. A. Hintermister, Scranton, 122; E. P. Thayer and G. H. Thornton, Buffalo, 119; L. N. Mol.ean and H. M. Wheelock, Fergus Falis, Minn., 119; J. B. Porter and J. L. Lieb, Hamilton Club, Chicago, 118; J. N. Bahahaway and Z. J. Frost, Austin, Ill., 118; J. C. Boardslee and H. C. Beardslee, Cleveland, 118; C. B. Waterhouse and M. L. Messer, Boston, 117. The New York pair, Fogel and Thomson, missed getting into the finals by one trick.

In the open events last night the winners were: Miss M. H. Campbell and C. A. Henriques, New York; Lindsay Fogg and G. Congswell, Cleveland; H. C. Brediker and J. C. Rochbery, Deptroit; Mrs. H. C. Brediker and J. B. Woods, H. A. Walker and M. Shire, Buffalo; C. T. Robertson and A. J. Halle, and M. S. Hay and M. L. Countryman.

Danny Needham, the former welterweight, who retired from the ring several years ago, was arrested at Chicago the other night on a charge of robbery made by T. P. Wheeler, a travelling salesman. Needham owns a saloon on the north corner of the Clark street bridge, on the north corner of the chicago. Wheeler alleges that he visited the place in company with a friend. He says he left place in company with a friend. He says he left in an intoxicated condition and wandered to the dock below Clark street, where he alleges he was assaulted and thrown into the river. When fished out Wheeler made statements which led to the arrest of Needham and the latter was put in jail. George Eck, Needham's bartender, was also locked up. Eck, it is a serted, seized Wheeler by the throat and rifled his pockets. He is alleged to have thrown the money over the bar to Needham, who, it is charged, stood calmly by and watched the whole proceeding. Needham says he is innocent.

BRILLIANT TROTTING TO WAGON. Fast Time and Exciting Contests at the Mat-

The popularity of amateur harness racing was attested yesterday by an attendance of more than 5,000 persons at the Empire City Park. Under the auspices of the Road Drivers Association some of the best trotting and pao ing contests that have been seen this season were decided on the lightning-fast course where Star Pointer met his Waterloo, and the crowd went wild over the rasping finishes between the rival road horses. There were many visitors from Boston, Philadelphia and other ard of Boston, A. E. Perren of Buffalo, and Edward Martens of Mount Vernon.

Richardson, P. J. Rud den's Eon and M.G. Byam's George Wellington declined to combat. The real contest was between De Witt C. Flanagan's handsome bay mare Martha from Morristown, N. J., and M. J. Byrne's brown gelding Redan. From wire to wire in the first heat the two trotters fought for the lead like a pair of bull pups, the Morristown mare winning by a short head after a great rac down the homestretch. Redan got off in the lead in the second heat and kept Martha at his wheel until the backstretch was reached. There Mr. Flanagan cut her loose and she marched the second quarter at a 2:15 clip, gaining a clear lead before reaching the half-mile post. Redan rallied again in the stretch, making another exciting race home, but the mare stalled him off and won the deciding heat in 2:19%. The time of the mile was something of a surprise to many spectators, as it is not every day that a 2:40 race at the big circuit meetings is trotted below 2:20. Martha was in the 3:00 class when she started yesterday. Mr. Flanagan says she was bred in Indiana and was got by Whirlpool, a son of Whirlwind. She started at Empire City Park last fall and though beaten, was separately timed in 2:16%. Her owner and some other horsemen believe she will learn to trot in 2:10. The fast horse was unsteady and he cut no figure in the race. Dariel, 2:07%, and Baby Ruth, 2:06%, disappointed their admirers, the former seeming to possess little speed and the latter going unsteady without her hopples. The winner turned up in the Kansas stallion, William Wallace Scribner, 2:06%, that figured weaking sprinter, fell. After the first two events the weather became excessively hot.

Union Hill, To-day. Practically all arrangements have been completed by the various committees of the United Bowling Clubs for the monster festival and international tour ament which will begin at Schuetzen Park, Union Hill, to-day, and last until next Sunday. Just how many bowlers will participate in the different competitions the officials do not know, but it is expected that 5,000 or more will strive for the numerous prizes which will be at stake. During the past week a number of bowlers arrived in this city from which will be at stake. During the past week a number of bowlers arrived in this city from different parts of the country. Twenty-two alleys will be utilized, of which six will be set aside for the women.

There will be ten different tournaments for men, namely: Team, strike and spare: team headpin; individual for medals and cup; individual for solid sliverware; cocked hat, candle pin; duck pin; Italian boggie, German style, and intercity, in which nine teams will participate, as follows: New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, St. Louis, Toronto, Baltimore, Cleveland, Columbus and Wheeling. Each of these teams will roll one game, the highest score to decide the championship. The women will take part in three tourneys, namely: Team strike and spare, team tenpin and individual. The team tournaments will not begin until Tuesday, but the players desiring to rarticipate in the individual tourneys to-day and to-morrow can play if they choose. The bowling will begin each day at 1 o'clock and continue until 10 o'clock at night, the intercity games to begin at 5 o'clock. In addition to the bowling there will be shooting tournaments such as king target, trophy target, team match and builseys target.

A parade has been arranged for to-morrow in which the United Singing Societies, Schuetzen Societies of New York and New Jersey, and Plattdeutsche Volkfest Verein will participate. The parade is scheduled to start from Beethoven Hall in East Fifth street at 10 o'clock for a march to Union Hill.
